

Keepin' the law

Lyrics ©2008 by Dan Curtis
(to the tune of "Breaking the Law")

There I was, a lawless Christian
Thinking I was saved!
Every Sunday mega worship,
Rockstar song and praise!

Still I felt deep inside
Something wasn't right
'til Yeshua told me to Put the truth into my life!

Keepin the Law! Keepin the Law!!
Keepin the Law! Keepin the Law!!

So much for that "saved by faith"
without works your faith is dead!
"If you love me, keep my commands"
is what Yahshua said!

If you knew what's it like
You would have a clue
Yes we still need faith and grace
but we need obedience too!
